

The Steve Holman, Jr. Media Award Fund

This award, established in 2018, honors the memory of Steve Holman, Jr., a 1998 Woodward Academy graduate. While a high school student at Woodward, Steve played football and was part of the WATV Morning Show Crew. Steve had a strong interest in journalism and media relations which carried on in his professional career working in politics.

This award will be presented annually at the Senior Banquet to honor a member of the graduating class who has made a significant contribution to student journalism at Woodward in student publications or WATV, and is interested in pursuing journalism in college.

This honor carries with it a cash award.
